Drumkeerin GAA: Are hosting the "Lifting the Silence on Suicide Community Event". It is taking place in the Lough Allen College, Drumkeeran on Fri 24 Jan. You are invited to spread the word and encourage family, friends and colleagues to attend these events to open the conversation about suicide. The public talks will offer guidance on how we can all help prevent suicide, discuss the links between alcohol, substance misuse and suicide, discuss bereavement by suicide and outline the supports, services and training available in our area. We can all think about how offering support may play a part in helping to prevent suicide. We are all part of communities which link us to friends, family, colleagues and/or neighbours. Please contact Margaret Fee on 0877785838 for more information or to book a place.
